Description :

PDF-16a57 | “An Italian meal is not just for allaying hunger,” the authors aptly write. “Dining in Italy is an affirmation of the preciousness of simple things — of the worth of bread, of oil, of wine, and of ourselves. . . . For animals, eating is survival. For humans, eating is a rite of civilization. For Italians, eating is the single great art accessible to us all.” Maresca and Darrow’s superb...
